Federal Energy Regulatory Commission Process J-2 Regulating Reservoirs Project (FERC No. P-1417)

Project Purpose

The proposed J-2 Regulating Reservoirs Project would improve the ability for Central to effectively manage the water resource for hydropower generation and irrigation deliveries and to return water to the river at times and at volumes that are beneficial to the environment.

License Amendment Process

Three Stage Consultation

1. File Preliminary Information

Initial Consultation Document (ICD)

Consultation & Communication with Stakeholders

Joint Agency Meeting & Site Visit

A. Alitera

lum Cree Ailitary Pos

iniel Freeman 2nd Store

2. Collect Information

Review ICD Comments

Conduct Studies (e.g., cultural resources, habitat, wildlife)

Consultation & Communication with Stakeholders

3. License Amendment

Prepare Application

Consultation & Communication with Stakeholders

File with FERC

FERC Analysis (NEPA) & Action

Project Implementation

Project Permits

Construction

Operations & Maintenance

Project Monitoring & Compliance

Nebraska Public Power and Irrigation District